Boyton Primary School Newsletter

Friday 2nd May 2024

Dear Parents,

Firstly, I need to congratulate our wonderful Year 5 children who have filled me with pride and admiration! Over the last few days they have been participating in the 'Simply Outdoor's residential at Kelly College, in Tavistock, with peers from Callington Primary. For many this was their first proper experience away from home with lots of new people. All have completely embraced every opportunity thrown at them over the past few days!! They have made lots of new friends, undertaken challenges that have needed courage and resilience, enjoyed delicious meals and, above all, have been an absolute to take away! I'm sure there will be some rather tired children this weekend!

ECO club has been fantastic again this week! All were totally committed in building a very welcoming bug-hotel to encourage greater biodiversity!
Next week, we are planning a fundraising venture to raise money to support our project of having hens in school! We have had an incredibly kind offer of a handmade chicken coop/house – which we would like to contribute to. (I am as excited as the children!)

The next step is sourcing materials to build a run and explore options for holidays. If anyone can offer any advice or expertise, I'd be very grateful!

Anyway, wishing you all a very lovely and hopefully sunny bank holiday weekend!

As always, please don't hesitate to get in touch if you should have any queries or concerns.

Best wishes Mrs Davies head@boyton.cornwall.sch.uk

Acorn/Birch Class Update

Acorns and Birch have been very busy this week! We used plant identification sheets to find out what sorts of plants live on our school field and daisies were definitely the most common! Our maths learning has been amazing – Acorns have been adding 1-more and Birch have been learning how to tell the time. We have mastered o'clock, half-past, quarter-past and quarter-to, so please help us to practise these at home! Thank you!

In English, Birch children have been writing some fantastic noun phrases to make their sentences more interesting, using two adjectives to describe each noun! Acorns have been producing some great ideas in Drawing Club!

You may have noticed that we now have Tapestry up and running for the children in Acorns class. I will be adding milestone observations of your children onto there so that you can see how they are progressing, as well as anything amazing that we are learning!

If you have any questions or concerns, please let me know!

Have a lovely Bank Holiday weekend!
Mrs. Gilman

Chestnut Class Update

Chestnuts have had a great week! In English, we have been describing settings related to the 'Baker by the Sea' story, using metaphors, similes and personification. The children have also explored impactful vocabulary and how it can be used to create different images.

In Maths, the children have been consolidating their knowledge on finding angles and investigating 3D shape, identifying properties and comparing to nets.

During their P.E lessons, the children have started looking at OAA (Outdoor Adventure) where they had to complete an ordnance survey jigsaw and use a basic map with the correct orientation to find cones. It was great fun!

The Y3/4s have just started a new topic in Science - investigating light. The Y5/6s are starting a focus on 'Forces' and investigated measuring mass in Newtons.

We're really looking forward to seeing their research/ creations on 'Iron Age Hillforts'. It's been great chatting to the children about their plans and efforts!

We wish you a super weekend!

Tips for Encouraging Open Discussions about DIGITAL LIVES

DISCUSS THAT NOT EVERYTHING WE SEE ONLINE IS REAL

Here, you could give examples from your own digital life of the online world versus reality – for example, those Instagram posts which show the perfect house: spotlessly clean, never messy and immaculately decorated. Explain to your child that there are many other aspects of the online world which are also deliberately presented in an unrealistic way for effect – such as someone's relationship, their body, having perfect skin and so on.

TRY TO REMAIN CALM

As much as possible, try to stay calm even if your child tells you about an online experience that makes you feel angry or fearful. Our immediate emotions frequently influence the way we talk, so it's possible that your initial reaction as a parent or carer could deter a child from speaking openly about what they've seen. Give yourself time to consider the right approach, and perhaps speak with other family members or school staff while you are considering your next steps.

The online world is an entirely familiar and commonplace part of life for today's children and young people, far more so than for previous generations. There are many positives to children being able to access online materials, so it's important not to demonise the internet, games and apps, and limit the benefit of their positive aspects. At the same time, we do have a responsibility to educate children about the hazards they may encounter online (just as we would about real-world dangers) so it's essential that we don't shy away from talking to them about the complex – and often sensitive – subject of what they do and what they see when they're online.

MAKE YOUR INTEREST CLEAR

Showing enthusiasm when you broach the subject signals to your child that you're keen to learn about the positives of their online world. Most children enjoy educating adults and will happily chat about what they use the internet for, or what games and apps they're into and how these work. Asking to see their favourite games and apps in action could help you spot any aspects that may need your attention – such as chat functions which might require a settings adjustment to limit contact with strangers. Keep listening even if your child pauses for a long time: they could be considering how to phrase something specific, or they may be gauging your reaction.

BE OPEN AND HONEST, APPROPRIATE TO THEIR AGE

At various stages, children and young people become curious about puberty and how their body changes; about relationships; about how babies are made; and about sexual health. If your child knows that they can discuss these sensitive subjects with you, they tend to be less likely to go looking online for answers – which can often provide them with misleading information and, in some cases, lead to them consuming harmful content. Don't worry if you don't immediately know the answers to their questions – just find out for yourself and go back to them once you have the facts.

The entitlement criteria for automatic payments from the Household Support Fund is changing.

In order to be entitled to a payment from the Household Support Fund scheme in 2024, you must be responsible for at least one child and on 3rd June 2024 either:

be entitled to Council Tax Support or have been placed in emergency accommodation by the Council

You will receive £80 per child. If you are already in receipt of Council Tax Support, then you don't have to do anything else – you will receive your payment automatically.

To find out if you are eligible for Council Tax Support, please check the information here <https://www.gov.uk/benefits-calculators> .

You can make a claim for Council Tax Support by using this link <https://www.cornwall.gov.uk/benefits-and-support/council-tax-support/apply-for-council-tax-support/>

It is important that you submit your application by 31st May 2024.

You may also be entitled to help from the Household Support Fund via one of the Household Support Fund partners. Their details can be found here <https://www.cornwall.gov.uk/benefits-and-support/household-support-fund/>

Why have we made this change?

Because entitlement to Free school meals has been protected since 2018, parents of children who are entitled to free school meals aren't always still on a low income. By using our Council Tax Support data, we can ensure that the Household Support Fund awards are going to parents who currently have a low income and are struggling with the increased costs of running their home. By better targeting the awards, we are able to help families with children of any age, rather than just school age children.
