Dear parents,

We have had a super first week back! Place Architects were really impressed with Chestnuts' 'bridge' entries for their annual competition. Every child received a personal comment, a certificate and sticker for their efforts! Well done all! Several were also awarded 'special mentions' and well done to Sybil for coming 3rd in the 7-11years class!

Acorns and Birch also had a super trip to Launceston Castle this week! It was a treat for all! What an incredible location for a castle - the views were certainly far reaching! It prompted lots of super discussion linked to their recent topic and follow up work.

This week, as part of our 'Capability Curriculum', Chestnuts have also been voting once more on which 'capability' needs to be our new focus. We vote as a class and it's always inspiring to see how insightful and thoughtful the children are. Our last focus was 'Relationships and Leadership'. It's been really great to hear their pupil voice about how they feel we have made good progress in this area.

The results from the class vote this week were; 'Managing Feelings'. This is very apt for this time of year, when we may have lots of mixed emotions with lots of transitions coming up.

Next week, we have some exciting things coming up. On Tuesday 10th June, we have our Tempest class photos. (We appreciate this isn't a Catkins' day – so will ensure Mr P - chief photographer, photographs Catkins too on a Thursday or Friday.

On Wednesday 11th June, Chestnuts have their school trip to Discovering 42 – Science and Sustainability Centre! I will send out any last minute information on Class Dojo. The children have also got an 'alternative sports day on Friday 13th June'. This one is for the children – friends/ family unfortunately not invited to this one! (Just to avoid any confusion!)

There is so much on – I'm sure this term is going to fly! However, as always, please don't hesitate to get in touch if you should have any queries or concerns.

We wish you a lovely weekend.

Best wishes

Mrs Davies kdavies@andaras.org

Catkins Update

Hello everyone!

Catkins and Acorns have been back in action this week, beginning our new learning topic about the sea! We will be learning about lots of different sea creatures, investigating water and the seaside, and hopefully enjoying a lovely day out at the beach towards the end of the month (information on this to be forwarded separately).

Thursday was very wet and blustery, which gave us an opportunity to play with lots of water which had collected in containers in our garden (we try to use rainwater where we can, to save using tap water in our mud kitchen etc).

The children used all kinds of equipment to investigate its properties, built wooden sand-castles in the Ark to stay dry and talked about the kinds of animals that might live in our rock-pools. Friday, the time came to plant our tomatoes and flowering plants from last half-term into our big raised beds, and we listened to the sounds of the sea after making a jellyfish!

Well done Catkins and Acorns! - Mrs Lawton

Acorn/Birch Class Update

Acorns and Birch have had another great week of learning! The highlight of the week was definitely our visit to Launceston Castle! We saw for ourselves what a motte and bailey castle looks like and we learnt all about how people used to live in Launceston in the past. In English, Birch have been continuing to read 'Lost and Found' and have been using the conjunction 'but' to join opposite pairs of words together. Acorns have been writing sentences during Drawing Club about The Giant Jam Sandwich.

Acorns have been finding repeated patterns in maths and Birch have been finding parts and wholes as part of their learning about fractions.

We have started our new topic about the seaside in geography, looking at and comparing images of different types of regions including coastal, urban and rural areas.

In PE, we have been moving in different ways, learning how to control those movements and change from one to another.

Your child will be bringing their home learning sheet home for this half term today – thank you for your support with this.

Please let me know if you have any questions about anything.

Have a lovely weekend!

Mrs. Gilman

Chestnut Class Update

In English this week, the children have started looking at a new text, called the 'Island', which is a dark, picture book, that promotes acceptance. The children have role played different characters views and used these ideas to scaffold using inverted comma and speech punctuation accurately. They have also used expanded noun phrases to add detail to their writing.

In Maths this week, the Yr 3/4 children have learnt how to partition decimals by using part whole models and how to make a one whole using hundredths. Whereas the Yr 5/6 children have continued their learning in statistics and have learnt how to interpret and draw pie charts.

During their Science this week, the Yr 5/6 children carried out an investigation into taking their pulse and the effects of exercise and how this increases. The children wrote some brilliant predictions and finished by making conclusions on what they had found out. The Yr 3/4 children had a focus of renewable energy and fossil fuels, where they invented a house that could be powered by just renewable energy.

During their P.E lesson the children had a great game of rounders, where they put into practise all the rules and regulations they have previously learnt. Hope you have a great weekend!

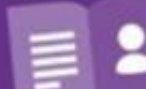

Parental controls and supervision are your best bet for keeping your child safe online.

10 Safety Rules for Kids Online

#1 Don't post personal information like your address, email address, or mobile number.

Think before you post. Once a photo, video, or status of you or a friend is online, other people can see it and copy it, so it's no longer just yours.

#2

#3 Keep your privacy settings updated. Don't let strangers see your profiles, photos, or videos.

Never share passwords with friends or strangers.

#4

#5 Only add people to your networks that you already know. Don't add friends you don't know offline.

Don't meet people in person that you've met online. Tell your parents or carer about anyone suggesting to meet.

#6

#7 Not everyone is honest, so they may not be who they say they are.

Respect other people, even if you disagree with their opinions. Always be polite.

#8

#9

Only use the internet when you are around trusted adults.

#10

If you see something online that makes you uncomfortable, unsafe, or worried, leave the site immediately, shut down the device, and talk to a trusted adult right away.

► The UK police have a division for Child Exploitation and Online Protection (CEOP) where reports can be made online at <http://ceop.police.uk/safety-centre/> or by phoning 999.

► UK Safer Internet Centre also has a hotline for children's online safety concerns.
